Former President of the Portuguese Bar Association joins ABBC

ABBC is pleased to announce that Mr. Rogério Alves and his team will join ABBC in April 30, 2010, under an association agreement.

Mr. Rogério Alves is a former President of the Portuguese Bar Association and a very well known and reputed lawyer. His large experience and reputation will enable ABBC to broaden its areas of practice, in particular in the fields of Criminal Law, Economic Crime and White Collar Crime, thus strengthening the important role that this firm already plays in the market, and for which it is recognized as a reference law firm in Portugal.

ABBC main areas of practice already comprise Labour, Commercial and Corporate, Tax, Real Estate, Intellectual Property, Litigation and Arbitration, Public, Aviation, Finance, Energy & Projects.
